

2014 Skiing Is Believing

For people who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing

Nordic Racers Introductory Cross-Country Ski Clinic

Interested in knowing more about learning cross country skiing and the possibility of competing as a cross country skier for Canada at a Deaflympics? The Nordic Racers has had skiers compete in the Paralympic Games in cross-country skiing and now our team has turned their energy towards a new challenge — introducing more people to the sport! We have planned a one-day ski clinic to introduce anyone who is deaf or hard of hearing to cross country skiing and will provide registered sign language interpreters for the day. This is open to participants 8 years of age and older.

Where: Whistler Olympic Park in the Callaghan Valley just south of Whistler.

When: Saturday, February 8th, 2014.

Who: Individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing and one friend or family member – 8 and up.

Cost: $25 per person. This fee covers transportation, equipment and coaching.

To Register: Follow the link <https://zone4.ca/reg.asp?id=5672&lan> to register online or go to www.nordicracers.ca.

Registration deadline: Friday, January 31st, 2014.

Questions? Email adaptive@nordicracers.ca if you have any questions or want to register.
